

What others are saying about Indiana Career Explorer's ability to translate military skills:

- ★ "It works, use it."
General John Campbell, Vice Chief of Staff, U.S. Army
- ★ "This technology is the best thing I have ever seen for helping our Sailors match with great jobs as they leave the Navy."
Adm. (ret) John Harvey, former Navy N1
- ★ "The only technology we have used successfully to support the transition needs of our Soldiers and their families."
Bill McMillian, Transition Services Manager, Ft. Bragg

Begin your journey at [IndianaCareerExplorer.com/
page/veteranservices](https://IndianaCareerExplorer.com/page/veteranservices)

Questions? Contact Us at INCEhelp@dwd.IN.gov

Equal Opportunity Employer/Program. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities.

Funding is provided by the United States Department of Labor. This material does not necessarily reflect the views or policies of the United States Department of Labor, nor does mention of trade names, commercial products, or organizations imply endorsement by the United States Government.

Using detailed career assessments, career planners of all ages can focus on determining their interests, aptitudes, and skills and how they align with high-demand career pathways.

What's different about Indiana Career Explorer?

It's a more robust system that enables Hoosiers to explore career pathways within the context of the workforce landscape. Indiana Career Explorer intuitively navigates users to discover careers that naturally pique their interests creating greater career alignment for long-term success.

Using detailed career assessments, career planners of all ages can focus on determining their interests, aptitudes, and skills and how they align with high-demand career pathways. Part of the Indiana Career Explorer formula for achieving a successful career includes identifying jobs that are expected to be in high demand, potentially leading to greater job prospects.

Each potential job description provides insight into the profession including any education, training or certifications needed and where to go for that knowledge.

These results help users map the most effective career path.

Find your path – whether you're looking for new opportunities or expanding your career interests, Indiana Career Explorer can translate your military skills into exciting new options.

Veterans need only to enter their military occupational code (MOC) and Indiana Career Explorer will translate your skills into relevant career paths. Additionally, we can help point you in the best direction suited to your interest, Agilities and work values. Some recommendations may require additional training. If so, Indiana Career Explorer will help you find the best program for you.

Veterans from all military branches can be assured their experience will count:

- More than 15,000 MOC codes dating back to the first gulf war are mapped to skills
- Military ranks are cross-walked to skills

IndianaCareerExplorer.com/page/veteranservices