Task Force for Assessment of Services & Supports for People with Intellectual & Developmental Disabilities to meet in Indianapolis

INDIANAPOLIS—The next meeting of the Task Force for Assessment of Services & Supports for People with Intellectual & Developmental Disabilities will be held on Wednesday, Sept. 19, in Indianapolis at the Indiana Government Center South, Conference Room B, 302 W. Washington Street, Indianapolis, from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. EDT.

The meeting is open to the public and will be streamed live. The link to the livestream is <https://livestream.com/indiana/events/8361725> (or www.livestream.com/indiana). Public comment will occur at the beginning of the meeting so the task force can receive input regarding services and supports for people with disabilities.

Requests for accommodations should be made by contacting Kristina Blankenship at Kristina.Blankenship@fssa.IN.gov at least 48 hours in advance of the task force meeting.

The task force was established by House Enrolled Act 1102 in the 2017 session of the Indiana General Assembly and will be chaired by Lieutenant Governor Suzanne Crouch. The task force members were named by Governor Eric J. Holcomb in October, and will prepare a complete plan for implementation of community-based services provided to people with intellectual and other developmental disabilities.
